Wetteren, Belgium – November 10th, 2010

Significant events and transactions since July 1st, 2010

Since July 1st, 2010, no important events have occurred with a significant impact on the company's results and financial structure.

Outlook

In comparison with 2009, the second semester of 2010 has started with higher sales volumes. As from September, this ongoing volume increase experienced some deceleration due to the weather conditions.

Nevertheless Resilux expects for the entire second semester of 2010 an increase of the volumes sold compared to the second semester of 2009.

Further, Resilux confirms the outlook communicated when publishing the first half year figures 2010 and expects, based on the current data, to obtain for the entire year 2010 figures equivalent to the figures of the year 2009.

Resilux expects that, end 2010, the net financial debt, subordinated loans excluded, will amount to maximum the amount of the ebitda 2010.

Also in the second semester, Resilux expects to invest an amount of 6,0 to 8,0 million Euro, projects and real estate included, in additional opportunities in order to ascertain growth.
