REGULATED INFORMATIONUpdate regarding share buy-back program

Wetteren, Belgium – 19 March 2020

On 23 October 2019, the Board of Directors of Resilux NV adopted a share buy-back program, whereby a discretionary mandate was given to an intermediary to purchase during closed and open periods own shares on behalf of Resilux NV for a maximum amount of 2,500,000€ and a maximum number of 20,000 shares. In addition and under certain conditions, block transactions could be considered during open periods. The share buy-back programme is launched pursuant to the authorisation granted by the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders of 17 May 2019 to the Board of Directors to buy back, under certain conditions, own shares.

Pursuant to the aforementioned share buy-back program the company has purchased in aggregate 1,472 own shares between 12 March 2020 and 19 March 2020. The shares have been purchased by an intermediary in the context of a discretionary mandate on the regulated market of Euronext Brussels at an average price of EUR 119.64 per share for a total amount of EUR 176,104.01.

Resilux now owns, in aggregate, 1,472 treasury shares, or 0.073% of the total number of outstanding shares.
